

2019 AT A GLANCE: IN BANGLADESH

				74,187 households supported to undertake disaster risk reduction and preparedness and 29,319 households reached with holistic humanitarian assistance	110 million people received health and nutrition awareness and services through 48,589 community health workers and volunteers
111,526 households graduated from ultra-poverty	USD 5.09 billion disbursed in loans (an increase of 21% from 2018)	7.4 million total clients reached with financial services	Safe motherhood was ensured for 1.5 million pregnant women	489,559 children aged 3-5 years accessed early childhood development and pre-primary programmes	3,144,441 children, young people and adults (55% female) had access to learning opportunities
160,581 people supported with skills, jobs, and decent work interventions	19,681 young people placed in jobs (9,850 women, 1,274 people with disabilities, 39 transgender people)	849,816 people sensitised on safe migration and returnee reintegration	980,086 people in 400 urban slums in 20 cities registered through a real-time monitoring system	2 million people, including men and boys, reached through gender integration efforts	79,585 members of women-led community-level institutions participated in local power structures
64,314 children and adolescents registered in temporary learning centres in the Rohingya refugee camps	112,963 people in hard-to-reach regions received healthcare	102,067 people accessed human rights and legal aid education	240,094 people accessed safely-managed sanitation facilities	73,716 climate vulnerable households supported in building resilience to climate change impacts.	Contributed in detecting over 72% of tuberculosis cases (211,164) and 66% of malaria cases (11,358)