

BRAC AT A GLANCE

BRAC is the #1 non-governmental development organisation in the world, measured by innovation, impact and governance.

In 2017,

110M

people reached through our service delivery programmes

6.2M

total borrowers reached

USD 3.82B

total loan disbursement

2M

children, over half of them girls, enrolled in 33,074 schools and centres

1.3M

people, including men and boys, reached through gender integration efforts

150,638

women supported through post-disaster recovery and rehabilitation initiatives

443,066

people accessed agricultural services

404,482

children between the ages of 3-5 years accessed early childhood development and pre-primary programmes

162,148

people screened for TB symptoms

90,025

women received human rights and legal education

90%

of households received healthcare across hard-to-reach regions

75,658

households graduated from extreme poverty

52,409

potential labour migrants equipped with information on safe migration

43,714

people accessing safe water

19,145

malaria cases treated

16,805

people were equipped with skills

5,500

houses built back better after fires in urban slums

1,600

female village group members participated in union council elections 2016 and 580 won seats