1. INTRODUCTION

This Charter provides a framework for the conduct of Internal Audit in BRAC and has been approved by the Chairperson, BRAC and the Finance and Audit Committee (hereafter referred to as “the committee”). This Charter primarily aims to define and establish:

- The Role of Internal Audit Department (IAD) of BRAC.
- The objectives and scope of IAD of BRAC.
- The Internal Audit Department’s position within BRAC, its access to various records, departments and activities, its responsibility and accountability.
- This Internal Audit Charter has been prepared as per Guidelines of IIA (Institute of Internal Auditors and ISACA Audit & Assurance Standard:1001 and Guideline:2001)

2. DEFINITION OF INTERNAL AUDIT

The IIA defines internal audit as follows:

Internal auditing is an independent, objective assurance and consulting activity designed to add value and improve an organisation's operations. It helps an organisation accomplish its objectives by bringing a systematic, disciplined approach to evaluate and improve the effectiveness of risk management, control, and governance processes.

3. MISSION

The mission of internal audit department of BRAC is to enhance and protect organizational value by providing risk based and objective assurance, advice and insights.

4. ROLE

The Role of the Internal Audit Department is to assist the management of BRAC by providing independent advice on operations and performance and by assessing the effectiveness of internal control. The function aims to add value, improve operational efficiency, economy and effectiveness of governance process, risk management and internal control systems, including information systems.

5. OBJECTIVES

The primary objective of Internal Audit Department is to examine and evaluate whether BRAC's design of risk management, internal control (including information systems) and governance processes, is adequate and functioning properly.

In addition, the objectives of Internal Audit Department include advising and recommending to senior management for improvements in internal control system, risk management systems and governance process.

In order to accomplish the objectives internal audit department must perform risk assessment in conjunction with the audit planning process to determine whether there are adequate mitigation actions within BRAC. The outcome of these risk assessments will determine areas of risk based audit focus.

6. RULES OF CONDUCT (Guidelines by IIA)

Integrity

Internal auditors:

- Shall perform their work with honesty, diligence and responsibility.
- Shall observe the law and make disclosures expected by the law and the profession.
- Shall not knowingly be a party to any illegal activity, or engage in acts that are discreditable to the profession of internal auditing or to the organisation.
- Shall respect and contribute to the legitimate and ethical objectives of the organisation.

Objectivity

Internal auditors:

- Shall not participate in any activity or relationship that may impair or be presumed to impair their unbiased assessment. This participation includes those activities or relationships that may be in conflict with the interests of the organisation.
- Shall not accept anything that may impair or be presumed to impair their professional judgment.
- Shall disclose all material facts known to them that, if not disclosed, may distort the reporting of activities under review.

Confidentiality

Internal auditors:

- Shall be prudent in the use and protection of information acquired in the course of their duties. Shall not use information for any personal gain or in any manner that would be contrary to the law or detrimental to the legitimate and ethical objectives of the organisation.

Note:

- a) Access to the audit report is confidential and should be restricted to the Finance and Audit Committee, Executive Director, Director Internal Audit and individuals within BRAC who have direct responsibility for the area reviewed.
